

EconomEtica
(Inter-University Centre for Economic Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility),

the Department of Economics of the University of Trento

LaSER
(Laboratory for Social Responsibility, Ethics and Rational Choice)

announce an international workshop and a summer school on

EconomEtica
Centro interuniversitario per l'etica economica
e la responsabilità sociale di impresa

LaSER
Laboratory for Social Responsibility,
Ethics and Rational Choice

Social Capital, Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainable Economic Development

Trento, Conference Center Panorama

24th-29th July 2007

The Workshop 24th-25th July, 2007

INVITED SPEAKERS

Masahiko Aoki, Stanford University
Steven Durlauf, University of Wisconsin - Madison
Bruno Frey, Zurich University
Herbert Gintis, Santa Fe Institute
Robert Leonardi, London School of Economics
Nan Lin, Duke University
Raffaella Nanetti, University of Illinois at Chicago
Martin Paldam, University of Aarhus

MAIN TOPICS

- the concept of social capital in the economic literature: conceptual issues related to social capital studies. The usefulness of the concept of social capital in order to investigate the interplay between social norms, corporate governance and the structure of local institutions and their effects of on local sustainable development and firm efficiency;
- measuring social capital: methodological issues; investigating the relationship between economic development and the diffusion of social capital and CSR practices;
- empirical studies on social capital and economic development in HDCs and LDCs.

ORGANIZERS

Prof. Lorenzo Sacconi (EconomEtica - University of Trento)
Prof. Leonardo Becchetti (EconomEtica - University of Roma -Tor Vergata)
Prof. Antonio Chiesi (EconomEtica - University of Milano)
Dr. Giacomo Degli Antoni (EconomEtica)
Dr. Marco Faillo (University of Trento)

Deadline for application: 18th June, 2007

The Summer School 26th-29th July 2007

LECTURES BY

Masahiko Aoki, Stanford University
Steven Durlauf, University of Wisconsin - Madison
Herbert Gintis, Santa Fe Institute
Nan Lin, Duke University
Martin Paldam, University of Aarhus

AIMS

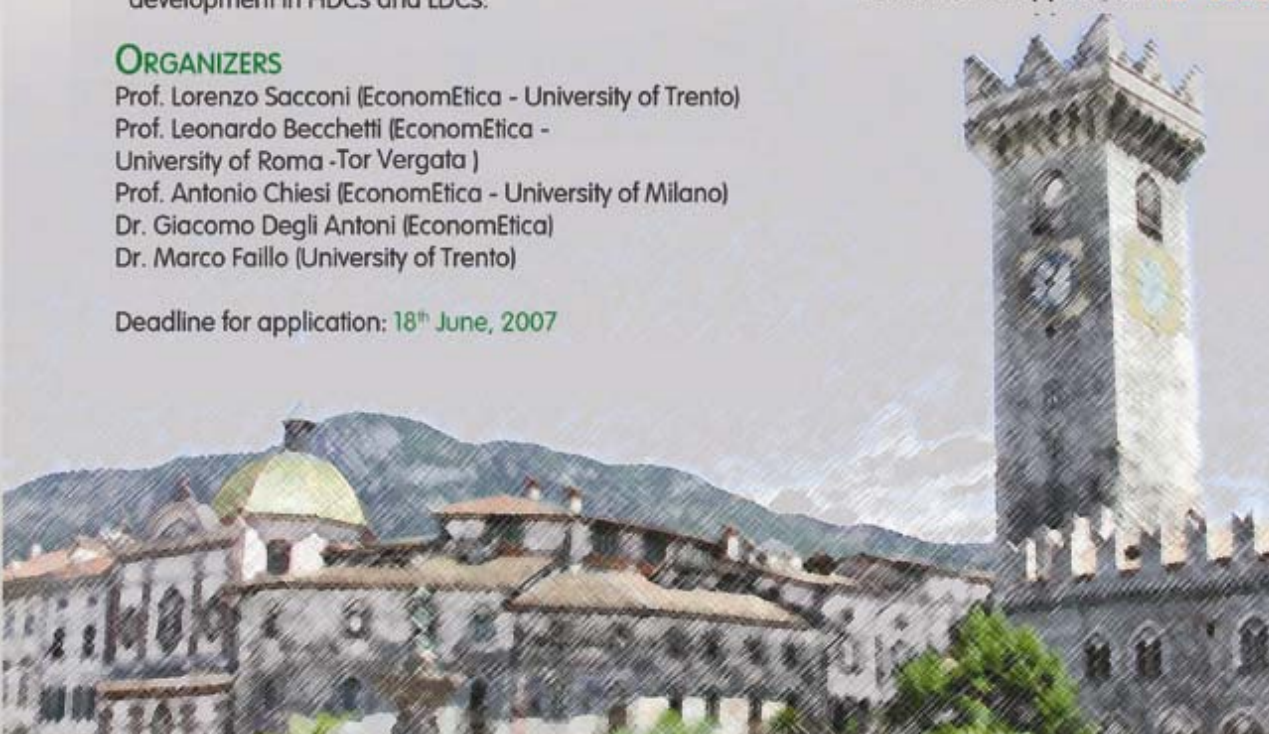

The school is aimed at Phd students and junior researchers in Economics, Management, Law and Economics, Applied Mathematics, Political Science, Sociology and Philosophy with a strong interest in the topics discussed 30 participants will be admitted.

ORGANIZERS

Prof. Lorenzo Sacconi (EconomEtica - University of Trento)
Dr. Giacomo Degli Antoni (EconomEtica)
Dr. Marco Faillo (University of Trento)

Deadline for application: 10th June, 2007

img. P. Chistié

Info

chiara.perini@economia.unitn.it
Department of Economics
University of Trento
via Inama, 5 - 38100 Trento
tel. +39 0461 882201-2203
fax +39 0461 88222
www.unitn.it/events/soc_cap